15TH VESSEL LAUNCHED BY SHIPYARD

WEST CAMAK LAUNCHED SATURDAY BEFORE SHIPPING BOARD AND OTHER SPECTATORS; FIVE SHIPS NOW ON WAYS AT YARD.

A successful launching took place at the Schaw-Batcher shipyards in this city last Saturday, when the West Camak took the plunge into the waters of the bay. Miss Mason, daughter of J. Mason, president of the Western Pipe and Steel Company of San Francisco, broke the customary bottle of champagne over the vessel's bow, christened it the West Camak, and the cables were cut that liberated the big 8800-ton freighter for its sidewise plunge. A considerable gathering watched the launching, among the spectators being the members of the Shipping Board.

There are now five vessels under course of construction at the Schaw-Batcher yards. According to information given out by the superintendent's office, the West Camak will be ready for her trial trip in about thirty days. She is the fifteenth vessel to be launched at the local yards.

MEXICAN ARRESTED IN ROOMING HOUSE

A Mexican named Pablo Quezesa was arrested in the rooming house over George Walters' old saloon at the corner of Cypress and Grand avenues Monday. The man was caught in the act of going through the clothing of the other roomers. He was locked up in the county jail and will be given a hearing on the charge of larceny next Monday before Judge W. J. Smith.

REGION VISITED BY MORE WELCOME RAIN

This week more rain has been falling at intervals, every drop of it welcomed by those who have interests in the country regions or have the best interests of the farming and cattle raising districts at heart. The gauge at the Southern Pacific station registered 1 inch for last Saturday, .08 of an inch Wednesday, and .09 of an inch for Thursday.

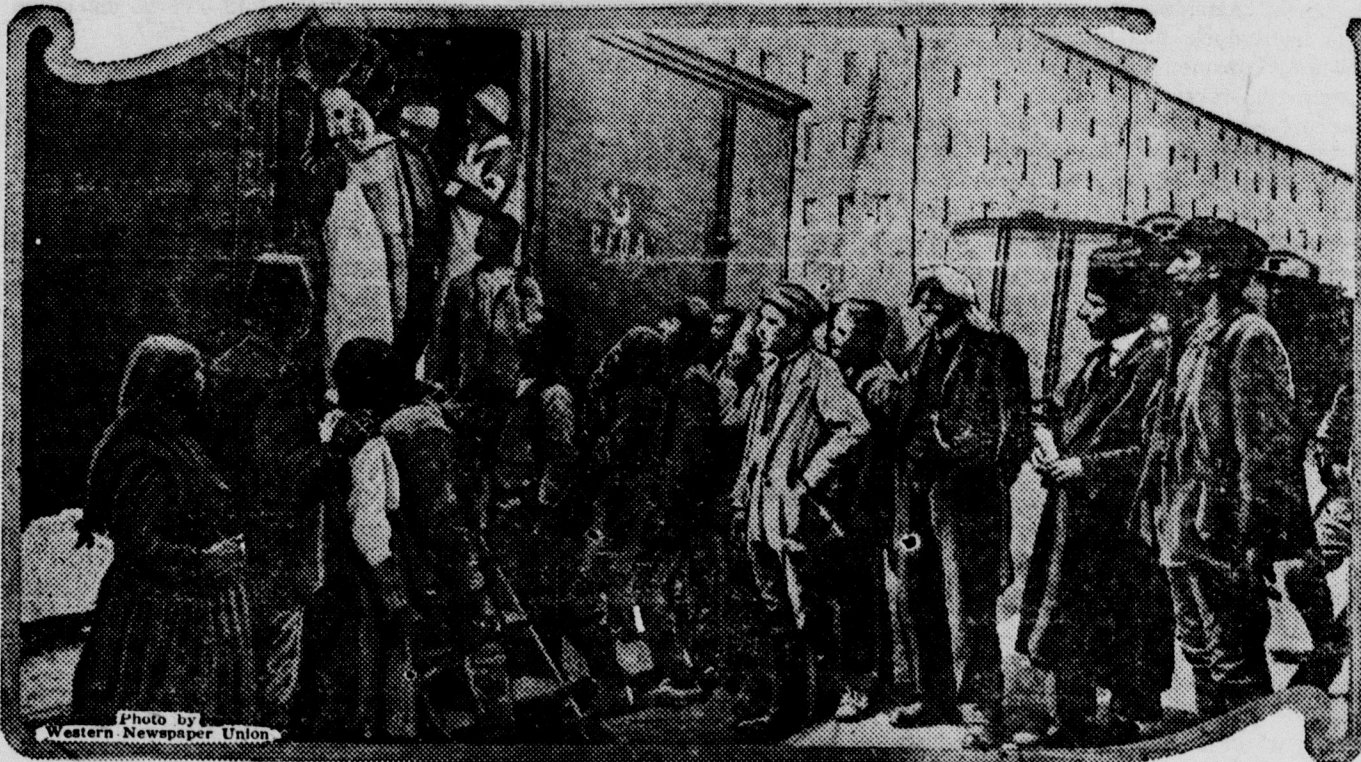

SEWING CIRCLE MEETS.

The sewing circle of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. W. H. Coffinberry Thursday evening. The time was spent in sewing and conversation. Refreshments were served.

NEW STORES PLANNED AT GRAND AND MAPLE

That South San Francisco is going to have a new store building is the announcement of the E. C. Peck Investment Company. The new building will be of brick and will be built at the southeast corner of Maple and Grand avenues. It will be two stories in height, facing 50 feet on Grand avenue and 100 feet on Maple. The lower part will be divided into two store rooms, the second story being designed for apartments. Just when the work will start on the building has not yet been decided, but it will be in the near future. Brick for the construction is already on the ground. The Peck Company are to build the structure. R. C. Stickle will have the building contract.

MOBILE HOSPITAL DOES GOOD WORK IN NEAR EAST

This is Dr. George L. Richards' hospital car on the Bagdad railway, halted at a station to treat the sick. Such hospitals are found necessary by relief-workers in the near East.

ELECTRIC SHOP CHANGES HANDS

C. F. Shurk, Well-Known Electrician, Buys Business of T. L. Ryan; Ryan Goes to Pittsburg.

A deal involving a change of ownership of a growing business in this city was consummated this week, when C. F. Shurk, well-known electrician, purchased the Electric Shop at 307 Grand avenue from T. L. Ryan.

Mr. Shurk has hosts of friends in South San Francisco and the surrounding towns. He has been in the employ of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company for twelve years, seven years of which time he has been division foreman. He expects to sever his connection with the Pacific Gas and Electric Company at the end of March and will take charge of the Electric Shop April 1st. He expects to handle all kinds of electric appliances and to conduct a general electric contracting and repairing business in connection.

The place of division foreman with the P. G. and E. will be filled by William Ely of San Mateo. Mr. Ely will move his family to this city as soon as he can find suitable accommodations.

Mr. Ryan expects to go into business at Pittsburg, Calif.

MELENDY MAKES LONG FLIGHT IN SHORT TIME

L. E. Melendy, aviator at the Friesley flying field, made a flight from the local field that is noteworthy for the speed attained. The trip was to Oroville, Calif., a distance by rail of 175 miles. Mr. Melendy had two passengers with him on the flight and his time was one hour and fifty minutes.

H. W. HAGE EXCHANGES PROPERTY FOR ORCHARD

H. W. Hage has traded his property interests in this city with J. Virgin for orchard property at Brentwood, Calif. Mr. Hage moved his family to his new property Wednesday of this week. The property Mr. Hage traded includes the Hage apartments and a residence, both on Magnolia avenue. The property he acquired consists of an almond orchard of thirty acres, with ten acres of farming land.

Mr. and Mrs. Hage and two daughters have been residents of South San Francisco for four years. Recently Mr. Hage sold the restaurant he had conducted in this city to Gus Nicholas.

CHAMBER ASKS POLICE DEPT. PROBE

WANT TRUSTEES TO INVESTIGATE EFFICIENCY OF OFFICERS IN DEPARTMENT; ALSO ASKS CITY ACT ON LOOSE LIVESTOCK.

The Chamber of Commerce of South San Francisco wants the city trustees to conduct an investigation of the city police department to determine the efficiency of the officers in charge. It was brought to the attention of the Chamber that the night watchman, especially, was never to be found when trouble was brewing. Without a dissenting vote the members of the Chamber of Commerce meeting in the city hall Tuesday night went on record as favoring an investigation of the department.

The matter of livestock being allowed to run loose or being picketed on vacant lots where the animals make nuisances of themselves, was brought up at the meeting and aroused much discussion. Many members expressed themselves as suffering from the depredations from loose stock or those tied where they can break flowers and trees, run over sidewalks, etc. It was brought out that this city has an ordinance that no livestock could be picketed on a vacant lot without first getting the consent of the owner of the property, but that no attention was ever paid to the ordinance. So far as the Chamber could learn at this meeting, the activities of the poundmaster regarding such stock were nil. The secretary was instructed to communicate with the city trustees and urge that something be done to curb this nuisance.

Reports of various committees were listened to and routine matters disposed of. The next meeting of the Chamber will be April 6th.

Y. M. C. A. ENTERTAINMENT POSTPONED FOR ONE WEEK

The entertainment to have been given at the Y. M. C. A. rooms next Tuesday evening has been postponed for one week, according to an announcement by David L. Smith, the local secretary. The new date chosen is Tuesday, April 6th.

SOLDIER KILLED BY SPEEDING AUTO

Bernard Herrera Killed and a Fellow Soldier Injured When Struck by Car; Driver Is Jailed.

Bernard Herrera, a private in the Forty-fourth Infantry, stationed at the Presidio, was killed, and Whitney Kelley, an enlisted man in the same regiment, was seriously injured, Tuesday night, when an automobile driven by Victor Lanza, a farmer living at Millbrae, dashed into a party of soldiers walking along the highway near Tanforan Park. The two injured soldiers were rushed to the South San Francisco Hospital. Herrera died before reaching this city. Kelley was given treatment at the local hospital, after which he was removed to the Letterman General Hospital at the Presidio.

It is declared by the other men of the party that, instead of stopping to give aid to his victims, Lanza put on all speed and hurried away. A moment later a machine driven by H. Wetmore of 1357 Pacific avenue, San Francisco, happened along and several of the soldiers got aboard, overtaking Lanza after a fast drive. The man was brought back to San Bruno and turned over to Marshal William Wedell, who took him to Redwood City, where a charge of manslaughter was placed against him and he was lodged in jail.

The soldiers of the party to which Herrera and Kelley belonged were on a hike down the peninsula in command of Captain G. L. McEntee, and had camped on the site of the old Tanforan racetrack.

An inquest was being held this morning in charge of Coroner Dr. W. A. Brooke as The Enterprise went to press. A number of the soldiers of the Forty-fourth, companions of the speeding auto's victims, were to be examined, together with Captain McEntee. Dr. F. S. Dolley testified that Herrera came to his death from lacerations of the brain, evidently caused by a terrific blow. The man's skull was fractured. Lanza was not on hand when the inquiry started, but it was expected he would be brought in for examination.

NEW ASST. SCOUTMASTER.

Glenn L. Williams, physical director at the Y. M. C. A., has been appointed assistant scoutmaster for the local Boy Scout troop.

THIEVES ENTER COFFINBERRY HOME

FORCE ENTRANCE THROUGH REAR WINDOW AND STEAL QUANTITY OF CLOTHING, JEWELRY, AND $45 IN THRIFT STAMPS.

The home of Mrs. Caroline Coffinberry on Grand avenue was broken into Monday night and a large quantity of clothing with a number of pieces of jewelry and other valuables stolen. No clue has been found to the identity of the robbers.

Mrs. Coffinberry, her daughter Elizabeth, and her sister, Mrs. James Field of Chicago, who is visiting at the Coffinberry home, were out for the evening, as was the Rev. Daniel Stevens, who has an apartment in the house. Mr. Stevens returned at about 12 o'clock, to find that somebody had been in his room and scattered his effects about. Some ten minutes later the other occupants of the house reached home and found that their apartments had also been entered. The screen had been torn from a rear window and the entrance made through the broken glass. Besides a large quantity of clothing and the jewelry, the miscreants took over $45 in thrift stamps that was the property of little Elizabeth. Much of the clothing was the property of Mrs. Field. As the main part of the house had not been entered, it is believed that the return of Mr. Stevens frightened the marauders away before they had finished.

PASTOR'S STUDY IS BROKEN INTO BY VANDALS

The Rev. Daniel Stevens, who spent the latter part of last week attending a district Methodist conference at San Jose, returned Monday to find that in his absence vandals had broken into his study in the Methodist church building and scattered his effects about. Apparently nothing was stolen, but the pastor's books were strewn over the floor and had been trodden under muddy boots. Indications pointed to it having been the work of young hoodlums.

LADIES' AID FOOD SALE.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church will hold its monthly food sale April 3d at Carmody's grocery. The committeemen charge is Mrs. E. Coffinberry, Mrs. Hazel Selby, and Mrs. Esther Smith.

LOCAL LEGION POST PLANS BALL TEAM

If present plans of Bernard McCaffery Post of the American Legion work out, the local post and this city will be represented by a baseball team in an American Legion league now being formed in San Francisco and other bay cities. There are many first-class baseball players in the Legion in this city and its environs, and if these will take the interest in the plan for a team it is expected they will take, a local ball team whose ability will be second to none around the bay will result.

The first practice game for the new team will take place at the local high school grounds next Sunday morning at 9:30. It is hoped that all ex-service men who can play ball will be present.

CANDIDATES SWING INTO HOMESTRETCH

Last Tuesday was the last day for the filing of candidates' nomination papers, so now all candidates are in the field and grooming themselves for the final spurt down the homestretch toward the coveted goal. For one city office, that of treasurer, there is no contest, the present treasurer, E. P. Kauffmann, having the field to himself.

For the office of city clerk two candidates are in the running, the present clerk, W. J. Smith, for many years a resident of this city and for eleven years the city clerk, being opposed by Daniel McSweeney, also an old resident of this city and former city trustee as well as former postmaster. The contest between Messrs. Smith and McSweeney promises to be close, as each has many friends in town.

With three city trustees to elect there are six candidates in the field, Winn Wesley Brawn, George William Holston, Leonard Goodrich Hardy Jr., John Henry Kelley, Henry Knoth, and Henry Scampini.

Kelley and Holston are at present members of the board. Both have lived in South San Francisco many years and each numbers his friends by the hundred. The wise ones of the town are saying that both have made good officials and will, in all probability, be re-elected. Should this prove to be the case, it will leave four contestants for the remaining place, that held at present by M. F. Healy of fragrant fame and distant residence, who is not running for re-election. Hardy is a young man of excellent reputation who has a strong backing among the steelworkers of the town and is popular with all who know him. Scampini, the proprietor of the Poppy confectionery store, has lived in this city for many years and has a wide circle of friends. He has a strong following among the Italian voters of the town as well as among the Americans and other nationalities. Mr. Knoth is making a strong campaign. He is known as a shrewd business man and has extensive property interests here. Winn Wesley Brawn, the last candidate to enter the race for city trustee, has also been a resident of this city for many years and is a man of good reputation and business ability.

There is every indication that this city will have a strong and capable city council for the coming term, whichever candidates are elected.

MISS ELSIE HAGE IS HONORED BY FRIENDS

A number of the girl friends of Miss Elsie Hage gave her a delightful party Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Leo Bonalanza on Magnolia avenue. Miss Elsie left this week with her parents for Brentwood, Calif., to make her home, and this party was in the nature of a farewell. About twenty of Miss Elsie's young friends were present and the evening hours were passed in playing games and dancing. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, sandwiches, candy and cookies were served.

MRS. E. C. PECK GIVES LUNCHEON WEDNESDAY

Mrs. E. C. Peck entertained with a lunch Wednesday noon, her guests being Mrs. Floyd Judah, Mrs. Jason Gould, Mrs. George Marcus, and Mrs. William Huffman, all of San Francisco, and Mrs. Andrew Hynding of this city.

"PACKINGTOWN" NOTES

A pedro tournament commenced Wednesday evening in the Welfare Club rooms and will continue each Wednesday evening during the next three weeks. Forty contestants have entered. Twenty hands are played each evening, and, judging from the results of the first bout, a warm contest will develop. The holder of the high score in each of the first two sessions will receive an order worth $1.50; high score on the third session, $2 order. The grand prizes for first, second and third highest scores of the series are orders for $10, $7.50, and $2.50, respectively.

"Jack" Attridge, veteran scaler on the front dock, has joined the "night owls." His membership will be temporary, however, for as soon as he has completed an inventory of the freezer beef stocks, which could not be conducted during the day on account of the regular operations, he will again resume the "even tenor of his way" obedient to the curfew laws.

The swimming tank will not be ready for use before the latter part of next week. Owing to the continued damp weather the paint recently applied is very slow in drying.

The butterine department has been the scene of unusual activities during the past two weeks. Wilson Bent, the department foreman, states he has scarcely time to lay off for lunch and seems to be entirely ignoring the fact that a man must eat to live.

In checking over the list of entries in the pedro tournament, it is safe to assume that the "gang" will need close watching by the official scorekeepers, the rule that "extra packs of cards will not be allowed in the possession of any of the players" being not a sufficient precaution.

P. J. BOWLER.

A. MARTINELLI WINS "Y" BILLIARD PRIZE

A. Martinelli is the winner of the beautiful billiard cue and leather case offered as a first prize in the Y. M. C. A. billiard tournament which started in January. The second prize, $7.50 in cash, was won by Arthur Maitland, while the third prize, a $5 gold piece, was captured by Mr. Arnold.

The last game of the long series was played Tuesday night between Maitland and Arnold, and resulted in Maitland's victory with a score of 100 to 66. Martinelli defeated Maitland Monday night by exactly the same score. Sixteen players in all have taken part in the tournament and many of the games have drawn large audiences. It was the original plan to have a game every night, but weather conditions and the absence of players as scheduled have often prevented this.

A chess tournament is the next feature planned at the "Y" rooms, and all who think they can play chess are invited to enter the lists.

HAS TWO OPERATIONS MONDAY AND TUESDAY

Pearl Ingersoll, daughter of Mrs. Ed Sieger, underwent two operations this week. Monday a tumor was removed from one of her eyes and Tuesday she was admitted to the Wakefield sanitarium, a private hospital in San Francisco, where her tonsils and adenoids were removed. Mrs. Sieger stayed in the city over night with her daughter and brought her home Wednesday.

DALY CITY OFFICIAL OUT FOR RE-ELECTION

The many friends of Charles L. Biebel will be pleased to learn that he is a candidate for re-election to the office of city clerk of Daly City.

The city clerk in a town of the sixth class, to which class Daly City belongs, in addition to his other duties is the bookkeeper and accountant for the municipality, and the office calls for the services of a man who is not only trustworthy, but also one who has demonstrated his ability for such work. His task calls for absolute accuracy in the apportionment of tax funds and in the making up of the tax rolls. Daly City is known all over the state for the efficiency with which the office of the city clerk is conducted. A number of the larger cities of the state, among them Sacramento, have adopted for use in street improvement proceedings the forms designed by the city clerk of Daly City, Charles L. Biebel.

Mr. Biebel has held the office of city clerk for the past four years (two terms), during which time he has, in addition to his regular duties, handled several Liberty Loan drives, amounting in all to nearly $100,000, in Daly City, to the complete satisfaction of the United States government and the purchasers of the bonds.

Mr. Biebel has been a resident and TAXPAYER of Daly City since 1908. His many friends have every confidence in his re-election by a large majority. "Part not with thy old friend for a new acquaintance."

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO A HISTORY

Having settled upon a lot-selling policy and plan, the Land and Improvement Company made arrangements with two real estate firms who were willing to undertake the sale of South San Francisco lots as sub-agents of the land company. These firms were J. T. Dunn & Co. and Buckingham & Co.

Later, when the merits of the new town had become known and its success assured, another real estate firm was made a subagent and engaged in the lot-selling business, but with indifferent success.

The firm of J. T. Dunn & Co. was first in the field, and from the first took and maintained first place as subagent in the sale of South San Francisco real estate. The primacy of Dunn & Co. was mainly due to W. J. Martin, who was the "Co." in the firm, and the active, effective factor in the marked success of that sub-agency. In 1891, Mr. Martin was a resident of San Jose, Calif., but he had formerly been an Omaha man, and was in business in that city during the founding and development of South Omaha; consequently he was familiar with the work done there, and was also a personal friend of P. E. Iler, secretary of the Land and Improvement Company.

When Martin and Iler met in San Francisco, Martin accepted an agency for the sale of South San Francisco lots. Mr. Martin needed a real estate man with an office suitable for his San Francisco headquarters as an associate, and, looking around, found such an associate in J. T. Dunn, and the firm of J. T. Dunn & Co. was formed and the work of selling South San Francisco real estate was begun.

The only way to reach the new town by rail from San Francisco was over the Coast Division line of the Southern Pacific Company, and the nearest point on that line to the new town was Baden station. At that time Baden station was on the main line over which all trains of the Southern Pacific Company ran daily, and all trains were required to stop at this station on call. When Charles Lux granted the right of way through his lands to the builders of this section of the Coast Division, he made it a condition that a station should be maintained near his ranch house for his benefit, and that all trains should stop on call at said station. The station was provided, and it was named "Baden" in honor of Charles Lux's native city in Germany.

Today Baden station is practically in the scrap heap, disused and dead, save as a station on the "Loop Line," over which only four daily trains pass. The Standard Oil Company has a station there, and A. P. Scott gets sand there for his sand, rock and gravel business; but that same sand, washed by annual rains from a wide watershed all the way from Colma, has buried the beautiful old Lux place out of sight. Time is a wrecker as well as a builder. Twenty-nine years ago Baden was a stirring, lively station. Crowds of prospective lot buyers went daily by rail from San Francisco to Baden, and there found teams ready to carry them two and a half miles over the rolling lands of the South San Francisco town site to the water front at San Bruno Point. Every day, Sundays included, J. T. Dunn & Co. had two big omnibuses and several smaller vehicles busy carrying the investing crowds from Baden to San Bruno Point and return. As the caravan moved over the new town, with each vehicle a trained, capable salesman pointed out the plan of the new town and explained its division into residence and business districts; and at the water front W. J. Martin, standing at the new slip on the deep-water harbor, depicted in glowing terms to listening crowds, as only W. J. Martin could, the great industrial scheme, of which the mere beginning was spread before them.

It was a rather brief but a very lively campaign, beginning in September, 1891, and practically ending in April, 1892, about six months in all, halted by the approaching financial crisis which pinched the country from New York to San Francisco from 1892 to 1896.

During those six months Mr. Martin captained as fine a corps of real estate salesmen as could be mustered anywhere. There was C. F. Crouse, who quickly gained the title of "Chief" among his associates; W. J. Sinclair, generally known as "Tip" Sinclair; W. R. Mockbee, E. J. Brown, Carl Dunn, and Mrs. Margaret Walsh.

The firm of Buckingham & Co. came into the South San Francisco real estate business at the beginning of the campaign through the agency of E. E. Cunningham. The firm members were A. E. Buckingham, Geo. H. Buckingham, and E. E. Cunningham.

Mr. Cunningham was an old-time acquaintance of P. E. Iler in Nebraska and when Mr. Iler was ready to put his South San Francisco property on the market he made Mr. Cunningham a subagent. Lacking the means to carry on the subagency alone, he presented the business to the Buckingham brothers, who were doing a real estate business on Montgomery street in San Francisco, and who, upon a very brief investigation, joined Mr. Cunningham, and Buckingham & Co. took an active part in the sale of South San Francisco real estate, but on a much smaller scale than the firm of Dunn & Co., there being but two salesmen with Buckingham & Co., namely, C. L. Burnes and E. E. Cunningham.

WHEN THE FIRST BABY GIRL WAS BORN IN THIS CITY

The Enterprise has had brought to its notice a copy of the South San Francisco News, published October 14, 1892. The News was the first paper published in the then infant city of South San Francisco. It lived about a year and then gave up the ghost. Some two years later The Enterprise made its appearance, and has been issued ever since.

In the next week or two there will be published in The Enterprise a number of quotations and stories from this early news harbinger. The first story in the paper is a column long, and announces the birth of the first girl baby to arrive in the new city. The baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. R. Harder the Monday preceding the publication of the paper.

Here is the way Mr. Morphy, one of the proprietors of the paper, touches up the event:

"The timely arrival of Miss Harder is a step in the right direction. Without girls our city might just as well shut up shop and retire from business; and whereas native sons are excellent things in their way, nevertheless, from a masculine standpoint native girls are infinitely nicer.

"When the news of the happy event got loose Monday afternoon, the city at once put on an entirely holiday aspect and all business was suspended. Even Orator Martin stopped short in the middle of a choice harangue and Deacon Mockbee—scenting a christening from afar—spruced himself up before the office mirror in Baden and chased out to pay his respects at the shrine of the new-born beauty.

"Senator Healy forgot about his boarders in the first swirl of excitement and left the famous pot of Irish stew to boil over on the hearth as he rushed forth bareheaded to congratulate Harder. The Elkerenkotters left the store to take care of itself and joined the gathering throng of callers, while from every housetop for blocks around an admiring crowd of youngsters kept watch over the Harder residence."

In another place in the paper the scribe breaks into verse welcoming the new-born babe.

Miss Harder is now Mrs. C. W. Smith of Miller avenue, and quite naturally prizes highly the copy of the News that so enthusiastically heralded her arrival in this world and city.

CAN'T HOODLUMS BE CURBED?

Scarcely a week passes without hoodlums, of which, unfortunately, South San Francisco seems to have more than its share, making their presence felt. Time and again they have committed nuisances and depredations on the Y. M. C. A. ground on Grand avenue. Monday night for the fourth time they cut the rope on the flagstaff at the playgrounds into small pieces. A night or two earlier they broke into the pastor's study at the Methodist church, threw the articles in the room on the floor and trampled them over with muddy boots. A short time ago several youths of the same ilk tore the doors off a dozen lockers in the "Y" rooms. And so it goes. These are not isolated cases, such deeds being perpetrated almost every week. So far as The Enterprise has been able to learn, little has been done to catch or punish these youths. Their deeds are of a much more serious nature than the pranks of youngsters full of animal spirits. Such could be overlooked, but the vandalism referred to here and other deeds being constantly committed are acts of young savages apparently dead to finer feeling. Their path is leading straight to the penitentiary, but while they are "in our midst" The Enterprise would like to know why something cannot be done to curb their outrageous activities?

THE HOME PAPER.

The home paper! How it ties those who have gone to far-off places, to other conditions and surroundings, to the faith of their forebears, to the plain, simple, normal life of rural America! One is surprised when one looks over the "list" and sees where the paper goes, "out of the county." The Messenger for the past sixty-five years has been going to Massachusetts and Virginia; to England and California; to Oklahoma and Canada; to Australia and the many busy but grimy mill towns of western Pennsylvania—in short to all the marts of trade and turmoil, whither our youth fare forth to win their spurs, and where too often they find instead of fame, failure; in place of wealth, travail of soul, and a weariness of the flesh for health and happiness. To these, the "home paper" causes many a smile of fond recollection; a refocussing of perspective; a new balancing of comparative values; a courage to go in the way that is right; and above all an unshaken and unshakable faith in truth and freedom; a belief in real democracy and a hatred for autocracy, whether it is of a kaiser or some malcontent, who knows not what he really does believe, except that he is against anything that has been and is, and in favor of anything that he fancies may be, utterly regardless of either cause or effect.—Arthur Brownless in Indiana (Pa.) Messenger.

GET INTO DEBT.

One hears on every side talk about the "housing problem." Are people not making more of a problem out of this than it really is? Are not nine people out of ten sidestepping the real issue? If the country is short of houses, why do not the people build instead of paying exorbitant rents about which they all complain? While building costs are high wages are higher in proportion, and it is no harder to build today than it was ten years ago under a lower scale of wages and prices.

The truth of the matter seems to be that there are too many people who do not wish to assume the responsibilities of home owning. Instead of putting their money into a home as their fathers did they are buying all manner of luxuries which they try to make themselves believe are necessities.

Louis Swift of Swift & Co. advised healthy working men of all classes to "get into debt," possibly as a panacea for the present hectic condition of mind obtaining among the general public, which seems to dictate that all earnings should be spent in a wild delirium of pleasure. The head of a family who must look to next month's salary for a payment of an installment due on a home is a far better citizen than the one who is mortgaging that same salary for fleeting comforts and idle diversions. Home owning is among the first principles of our form of government and is the very bulwark of our nation. Let the individual who wants a home, instead of complaining about the shortage of houses, get busy and arrange to build one.

A CARELESS PUBLIC.

Nine fires out of ten are preventable, and yet a careless public will not take the precaution necessary to prevent the nation's terrific fire loss, which for 1919 amounted to $218,183,475 in the United States and Canada and for February and January this year it already amounts to $63,644,250.

When one considers that a large part of the property burned is worth double today what it was when insured, the tremendous loss can be readily seen, especially when in many instances no increased insurance was carried.

In the face of the mounting costs of operation insurance companies have been able to maintain insurance rates on same basis as before the war, which speaks well for the general management of the business.

The wise man sees the beam in his own eye. The fool has no beam to see.

The loud man makes the biggest noise, is the easiest heard, and the most quickly forgotten.

You, of course, can always take your choice between wood alcohol and wood alcohol—either or both.

Popular opinion is popular only so far as it is satisfactory to the object.

ECONOMY IS ACID TEST IN JUDGING GOOD COOKS

The real superiority of a good cook lies not so much in making fancy or expensive dishes as in the attractive preparation of inexpensive, every-day dishes, and in the skillful combination of flavors. The appetizing dishes a good cook can make out of the cheaper cuts of meat or of meat "left-overs" are almost endless. More skill and time are required in their preparation than in the simple cooking of the more expensive cuts, just as more time and skill are required for careful, intelligent marketing than for haphazard ordering. Once upon a time some housekeepers seemed to have a prejudice against economizing. Today most of them are glad to have suggestions for economical methods which will insure the comfort of the family and keep the meals as varied and appetizing as when they cost more. A good housekeeper, the United States Department of Agriculture suggests, should take as much pride in setting a good table at a low price as a manufacturer does in lessening the cost of production in his factory.

FOR KITCHEN EFFICIENCY.

Arrange your kitchen equipment so that it will give you the most help and take the least work.

Choose things easy to clean and care for.

Try to locate the stove, sink, work table, and storage places so there will be no unnecessary steps in moving from one to the other.

Have good light where you work the most.

Adjust sink and work table to the height most comfortable for the person who uses them.

Group your utensils so that you can reach them easily. Put those most frequently used in the most convenient places. Small ones may be hung on little hooks fastened to the wall or the edge of a shelf.

Group them near the places in which they are most used and put those used together near each other.

Get rid of useless things.

MAKING AN OIL FLOOR MOP.

For oiled or polished floors an oiled floor mop is almost a necessity. Several makes can be found on the market, or one may be made of old stockings or any discarded woolen or flannellette material. In a farmers' bulletin on "Farm Home Conveniences," obtainable free from the United States Department of Agriculture, the following directions for making such a mop are given:

The material is cut into 1-inch wide strips, which are sewed across the middle to a foundation of heavy cloth. This is fastened to an old broom handle or used in a clamp mop handle.

The mop, when finished, is dipped into a solution made of one-half cup of melted paraffin and one cup of kerosene, and then allowed to dry. To keep it moist it is rolled tightly and kept in a paper bag away from stoves or lamps.

A Precarious Job.

The recent merger of the New York Herald and Sun, which resulted in the closing of the old Herald office, caused no little disturbance and mental anxiety among the newspaper men affected, several of whom had spent half a lifetime at the desks they then held.

An old copyreader on the Herald, who had been on the desk for a little more than forty years, threw down his blue pencil in disgust at the announcement that the old shop would go out of business.

"I knew darn well when they got me to take this job," he said petulantly, "that it would not be permanent."—Saturday Evening Post.

We may, at least, indulge in an occasional smile without having to climb into the skies to estimate the cost.

COUNTY RED CROSS TO GIVE AID HERE

As a result of action by the Woman's Club of this city, the Red Cross of San Mateo county may take action to lend material aid in cases of need in South San Francisco. Miss Porter of the Red Cross headquarters at San Mateo was in town several days this week looking over the local situation. As a result of earnest efforts in various wartime campaigns the Red Cross received $10,000 from this city, and the members of the Woman's Club believe, as this money is still on hand, it should be applied here. As a result of Miss Porter's visit the Red Cross may take up the matter of furnishing better school lunches for children here and also the organization of a Junior Red Cross in this city.

SO. S. F. BALL TEAM WINS GAME WEDNESDAY

The second basketball team of the local high school won a game from the second team of the Redwood high Wednesday afternoon, the score being 40 to 17. The game was played at the local school.

This afternoon (Friday) the first team of South San Francisco high will play the first team from Redwood. These two teams came together last Friday afternoon, with the result that the score stood 27 to 17 in favor of Redwood.

THE ENTERPRISE HAS FREE GOV'T SEEDS

The Enterprise has a limited supply of free government vegetable seeds. These will be given out as long as they last; first come, first served. As it is desired in the interest of greater food production that all this seed reaches the hands of those who will make good use of it, none will be given to children unless each brings a written request for it from a parent or other adult.

GETS HIGHEST GRADE IN CLASS AT STANFORD

Willard Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. California Needs More Electric Power!

THE PROGRESS OF CALIFORNIA IN WEALTH, POPULATION AND INDUSTRY WILL BE RETARDED IN PROPORTION AS HYDRO-ELECTRIC DEVELOPMENT IS DELAYED!

THEREFORE, LET IT BE THE VITAL CONCERN OF EVERY CITIZEN IN THE STATE TO DO EVERYTHING IN HIS POWER TO FURTHER THE DEVELOPMENT AND UTILIZATION OF OUR GREAT WATER-POWER RESOURCES.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

BY making your contribution to the enlightened thought and sentiment of the community in favor of extensive power development.

BY investing in Power Company securities, a safe and sound outlet for your surplus with assured income at the highest rate consistent with non-speculative investments.

BY giving moral support and encouragement to every legitimate enterprise that looks toward the development of electricity from the rivers that are now running to waste.

WHY YOU SHOULD HELP

BECAUSE you and your business will benefit through trade expansion that must and does follow the extension of electric service.

BECAUSE much of the money needed must be gotten from Eastern investors and confidence at home begets confidence elsewhere. Back up the industries that minister to your own welfare.

BECAUSE water-power resources are wasted only when unused. When it becomes necessary to generate electricity by means of fuel, other valuable resources that cannot be replaced are exhausted.

TAXPAYERS' ASSN. ENDORSES CANDIDATES

The executive committee of the San Bruno Taxpayers' Protective Association, at the mass meeting held in Carpenter's Hall last Saturday night, recommended that the association endorse Dr. F. Holmes Smith, J. T. O'Connor, and A. S. W. Grundy for city trustees of San Bruno. On account of bad weather conditions only a few people attended, and as there was a very small number of members of the association present, no action was taken on this recommendation.
